SPLENDID BASEBALL IS FEATURE OF AFTERNOON

The triangular baseball series was launched with due eclat at the ball park yesterday afternoon. Both the Keios and Santa Claras made their bow to the public, the former losing and the latter winning their game.

The crowd was the biggest ever seen at the ground and enthusiasm ran higher than it has ever done over a local sporting contest.

The Keios succumbed to the Punaheles by the score of 3 to 2 after a cracking good game which kept the crowd on tiptoes with excitement all the way through. The Keios are certainly the real thing in baseball and came mighty near winning their opening game.

At the beginning of the ninth the score was 2 to 1 in favor of the Japanese but the Colts managed to come through with a couple in their final essay which gave them the needed balance in their favor.

The Keios played fast, snappy ball which made a hit with the crowd.

The second game, between the Santa Claras and the Kamehamehas, was another fine exhibition of ball-playing. The visitors started scoring at once. Lappin walked and Peters went to first on a bunt. Lappin was nipped at second and Kennedy struck out. Peters landed safely at third, thanks to Jones' wild throw to second, and came in on Reuter's throw to Vannatta which the latter couldn't stop. A. Shafer struck out.

There was no further scoring till the eighth when the collegians bingled. Freine hit to Leta in right field but he dropped the ball which got among the crowd, allowing Freine to scamper round the bases for a home run.

In the ninth the Kams made a desperate effort and looked like winning the game at the last jump. Lemon flew out to left field and McKenzie went to third on a smash which sent the ball to the left field fence. Vannatta brought in McKenzie with a nice hit through short. Hamauku fled to center field and Jones came to bat. He sent a stinger to short which would at least have tied the game had it been allowed to get past Shafer. Umpire Bower gave it "out" although many of the spectators were of the opinion that the ball was taken on the bounce. It didn't make any difference, however, for the ball being thrown to second would have ended Vannatta's career.

The Keios scored in the second. Abe fanned. Kayama hit through short for two bases and then stole third. Kanki was running for Kayama. He caught Hampton asleep and stole home amid tremendous excitement.

Both teams scored in the eighth. Higo hit to first and stole second. Takahama sacrificed, Higo going to third. Murakami hit to short and Higo did the trick.

Hart of the Puns died second to first. Hampton walked, then stole the next station. Kia singled, scoring Hampton.

In the ninth the game was won as follows: Hoogs made first on an error by short. Marcellino bunted and made it good, and Lyman scored Hoogs and Marcellino with a hit along third base line.

Timely Hints to Ball Players

JACK MCFADDEN

Lightweight boxer, well known in Honolulu, who arrived by the S. S. Alameda from San Francisco last week.

Diamond Dust

The road from the ears to the ground is badly in need of fixing.

The crowd yesterday had the biggest crowd of the Spaldings' series skinned quite a way.

The Keios certainly know the game. It is a pleasure to watch them at work.

There were hundreds of purple and white Keio flags in the crowd.

Secretary Thompson pitched the first ball. President Isenberg was to have performed this function, but excused himself on the ground of a sore arm.

Shortstop Sasaki is a wonder. His work yesterday pleased the fans immensely.

Lyman did some nice throwing to second.

Kameyama brought off a splendid running catch in the third, disposing of Bruns.

Kanki is a very fast base-runner.

Kayama, the Keios' pitcher, uses good headwork. He is not an impressive twirler, but has speed when he wants to use it.

The crowd backed up the Keios.

As soon as the game was lost the Keios gave three cheers for the Punaheles, and the Colts returned the compliment with interest.

The absence of Fern from the Kamehamehas' team contributed largely to the defeat of the side.

BITE OF SNAKE FATAL TO BILL.

"So Wild Bill died of a snake bite? What did he get bit?"
"Oh, the snake didn't bite Bill. The snake bit Tough Tompkins, an' Tompkins drank two quarts o' th' remedy an' then shot Bill."—Judge's Library.

J. O'ROURKE WOULD MATCH FROLIC AGAINST BRUNER

John O'Rourke, the Hilo sportsman, writes the sporting editor of the Advertiser that he is willing to race Frolic against Bruner at six furlongs or a mile for $500 or $1000.

He makes the additional proposition to race up to five miles and wager $100 on every eighth over six furlongs.

Frolic is O'Rourke's imported runner which carried his colors at the recent Hilo meeting but only won one race. Frolic and Banonica arrived together but not in time to be trained properly for their engagements at the Hilo meeting.

Charlie David, the trainer of Yolo Girl, arrived from Hilo yesterday. He is greatly pleased with the showing made by the mare and does not hesitate to express his opinion that she is the best race horse in Hawaii today.

THIS GRAPPLER WANTS MATCH

J. A. Rath, superintendent of the Palama Mission, has a Japanese wrestler whom he would like to see matched with any of the local champions.

The Japanese in question, whose weight has not so far been revealed, is willing to wrestle Japanese style and catch-as-catch-can one bout each, and toss for the third.

Further information may be obtained by addressing the sporting editor of the Advertiser.

WILLIS RODE SIX WINNERS

Jockey Willis returned from Hilo by the steamer Mauna Kea yesterday.

He had nine mounts at the Hilo meeting and landed six winners, including Yolo Girl, Frolic and Breakwater. Willis will remain here at least until after the departure of the fleet.

In New York's Mexican colony they were praising at a recent dinner Pedro Alvarado of Parral, who had just given $2,000,000 to the poor. "He was poor himself," said a broker. "That is why he is now kind to the poor. A splendid fellow. Whenever I go back to Mexico I look him up. Alvarado likes to tell the quaint experiences of his days of poverty. In Mexico City he once pointed to a bakery and said to me: 'You see that bakery? Well, as I looked for work one morning early, I saw a tramp on hands and knees at the grating above the ovens. A policeman appeared. He tapped with his stick the seat of the tramp's trousers. 'Here, you move on,' he said sternly. 'That's inhuman, mister,' whined the tramp. 'I'm just inhaling my breakfast.'"

LOCAL ELEVEN DEFEATS SHIPS

Interesting Cricket Is Played at Makiki—Scoring Very Low.

An interesting game of cricket was played at Makiki yesterday between an eleven representing the Honolulu Cricket Club and a team made up of players from the British bark Hollywood and the British steamship Baranania.

The home side won on the first innings by the close margin of ten runs.

The ships batted first and were disposed of for 63 runs, toward which total Williams, 17, and Mace, 15, were the principal contributors.

The H. C. C. rolled up 73 before being disposed of, the chief scorers being Buchly, 19; W. Brown, 13; Lamb, 13, and E. Grant, 12.

In their second inning the ships made 35, of which Bright was responsible for 13.

Jordan took seven wickets in the first inning of the ships and R. Catton and R. Anderson shared the trundling honors in the second inning.
